Sunday Reflection

Who do we give our lives to? We are asked to be united with Christ, compassionate, charitable, looking out not for our own interests, but also for the interests of others, doing the work of the Lord. Let our "yes" mean "yes". And in living for Christ and for others, find our true peace and joy.

By giving of ourselves, we make room to receive more of Christ.

*Hello dear Parishioners of St. Mary's, Mayville,
St. Theresa, Theresa, and St. Andrew's, LeRoy...*

Greetings,

I would like to inform you that I am on transfer and taking up residence with the Pallottines in Milwaukee. The reason for moving away from our Parishes is that I am appointed as Provincial Rector of the Pallottines in the Midwest. I am so grateful to God Almighty for bringing me to these three wonderful Parishes. I enjoyed being the pastor in this area. You are all good disciples of Jesus and my humble prayer is that you remain good stewards of the Parishes and the Church.

Reverend Father Edwin Kornath will be the new Pastor. Let us welcome him and let us prepare for the transition. Fr. Edwin shall be taking the responsibilities in December, 2023.

Let us pray together and thrive as vibrant Catholic Parishes

Prayers and Blessings,

Fr. Joe

Hello all,

It was determined that St. Mary's will be concluding it's organized Bingo. We are grateful for Julie's dedication in running all of last seasons games. A survey had been emailed out to all parishioners who receive emails. There were additional surveys in back of church for those who don't do email. The response was extremely poor. We needed leadership to fill a handful of key spots to even think of continuing on. After much thought we decided to have one last Bingo - we need to do this anyway to get rid of our progressive pot. Our final Bingo will be:
Sunday, November 12 @ 1 PM.

Old Bingo workers we thank you! We need you to volunteer one more time.

Please call or text Deb Helmbrecht if you can help out one more time. 920-210-9768

Thanks Much!

Deb
