Sunday Reflection

Today Jesus drives out the money changers and those selling animals in the temple. They are defiling the Sacred Place where God dwells, with their worldly affairs. What do we bring with us of our worldly affairs when we come to thank and worship God and hear His word and receive Jesus in the Eucharist? How focused are we on every part of the Sacred Liturgy we are a part of? The same is true of that Sacred Place within us where God dwells, where we go to meet Him in prayer. Perhaps that too needs to be cleansed. Can we blame Jesus for getting angry? He is offering us His Presence and the Way to perfect happiness. And how often do we come to Him with our goats and pigeons? He will cleanse our Sacred Places, if we ask Him to.
