Sunday Reflection

In today's readings we are told that Jesus is the one having authority. He is the Divine Word of God, the Truth of all creation. He has power over everything, even to destroy the unclean spirit in a man. And the people were astounded and amazed. It is in uniting ourselves with Jesus' authority, that things in our lives fall into place. We can be free from anxiety, even in the turmoil, the sickness, the difficulties in our lives. Through our faith, our trust in Jesus and our prayer for one another, doors open, a release takes place, and we can turn everything over to our loving God.
