Sunday Reflection

Today Jesus asks, "What are you looking for?" What is your heart's desire? Where has your life led you, and has it satisfied your deepest longing? In answer to our deep inner questions, Jesus replies, "Come and you will see." Our response, "Here I am. Speak Lord, Your servant is listening." When we place ourselves before Him, and form an intimate relationship with Him, our questions find their answers, our life takes on a meaning that satisfies our deepest desires, and broadens our lives beyond ourselves.

Christian Formation

Hello and Happy New Year! Sorry for the delay in getting the last of our letters written during our Advent Fair by some of our students, I had computer issues that caused a delay.

What Christmas Means To Me...

It is Jesus's birthday and presents, you dekerayte your house and tree. You spend time with your family. ~ Aidan M.

Celebrate with family. Worship and love everyone. ~ Donivon M.

To give presents and receiving presents and being kind and helpful also be happy. ~ Amelia Z.

I like Christmas because we get to celebrate Jesus's birth. You also get to open presents. Christmas is one of my favorite holidays. Christmas is fun because I get to spend more time with my family, set up a Christmas tree and put ornaments on a Christmas tree. ~ Christian P.

Christmas means to me time to have fun and enjoy life and have presents and hot chocolate and it is time of Jesus birthday and all of my family get together. ~ Marshall G.

Christmas is a happy, special time to spend time with family. It also means celebreting Jesus birthday. The last thing is giving gifts/resiving them. ~Nathan S.

Presents, my family, family visiting, new toys, going to church, Christmas food, cookies, candy canes, elf on the shelf, Rudolph the reindeer. Christmas means to give and receive gifts to one another. It means to celebrate and be with your family. Going to church with one another to learn about Jesus birth. ~ Jerrick L.

Christmas means I get to spend time with my family. Christmas means I get to play outside. I also get to eat really good food. ~ Emma K.

Christmas means Jesus's birth and the Nativity. It means he comes into the world. ~ Landyn S.

Christmas means to me is seeing my family and friends, while having them over to celebrate Christmas together, which we go to church in honor of Jesus's Birthday. ~Jeremy W.

Christmas means to me gift giving and presents. Cool decorations like Christmas tree's. A break from school, spending time with family and friends. St. Nick coming to my house, seeing people you haven't seen in a while. Going to grandparents houses. The sight of presents under the Christmas tree and my dad bringing me to the Christmas tree. ~Maverick Y.

I truly hope you enjoyed reading these in the bulletins. I look forward to next year's letters. Also, thank you for all the families that attended Jesus's Birthday party! We gathered over 200 items (hygiene products, socks, hats, gloves...) to help those in need this winter!
