Dear friends,

We continue to celebrate First Holy Communion this Sunday at the 7:45 am Mass at St. Andrew and 10:30 am Mass at St. Mary's. Seven children will receive at both Masses. How wonderful to witness the children's love for Jesus.

The priests of the archdiocese will have their annual Spring Assembly this Monday through Wednesday in Elkhart Lake. It is a time of prayer, study, and fraternity. Bishop Robert Barron is our keynote speaker, and we honor at a special Mass and banquet our jubilarians of 10, 25, 40, 50, 60 and 65 years. At times, we've even had 70 and 75 year jubilarians.

I'm a 40 yr. jubilarian ordained May 18th, 1984. I'll offer the Saturday May 18th 4:30 pm Mass at St. Mary's, with sandwiches and potluck salads and desserts in the school cafeteria. Please come and celebrate with me if you can.

Because of the Priest Assembly, there won't be daily Mass until Thursday 8am at St. Andrew.

*In Christ,
Fr. Edwin Kornath*

Sunday Reflection

Jesus tells us, "This is My commandment: love one another as I love you." We can think of love as having two dimensions. The horizontal, which is the natural, our lives here on earth, interacting with others. And the vertical, which is the supernatural, God coming to us, and us rising to Him. Together they form a cross. The human and the Divine coming together in Christ. Here, we join our life on earth, with the life of God in Heaven. It is here that we are brought into Christ's Divine love and are shown how to love. We cannot do it on our own. At that juncture of the Cross, we learn from Christ, to truly "love one another as I love you."

As Archbishop Jerome E. ListECKi prepares for retirement, he will celebrate six Masses of Thanksgiving at various parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Milwaukee. Please join us! These Masses, held in gratitude to God, commemorate the bond between Archbishop ListECKi and the more than 500,000 Catholics under his guidance in the 10-county archdiocese.

Stay for a reception immediately following each Mass to thank Archbishop ListECKi for his spiritual leadership!
